DELEGATE'S REPORT

12th December 2006

DR3	PACT MEETING
	FILE: 77	JHB {Folio No. *}

SUMMARY:

Reporting on the attendance of Deputy Mayor Councillor John Bowell a meeting held at Port Macquarie on Thursday, 9th November 2006.

DESCRIPTION:

Delegates were advised that the review of crime figures had disclosed a general improvement indicating a slight decrease for the Macleay cluster.

The Memorandum of Understanding between the Department of Juvenile Justice and the Police was nearing completion.

I raised the question of the Department of Housing being represented on the Police Accountability Community Team and the Chairman, Superintendent Paul Fehon indicated that it was considered unnecessary.

In respect to the Coroner's report following the drowning in the Macleay River, near the traffic bridge, advised Superintendent Fehon that Council is considering the provision of appropriate signage at the public access points throughout the Shire.

The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday 22nd February 2007 at Port Macquarie.
