DCCS23	SENIORS WEEK ACTIVITIES
	FILE: 76	AF	{ Folio No. * }

SUMMARY:

Reporting on the activities planned for Seniors Week 2009.

◆◆◆◆◆

DESCRIPTION:

Planned activities for Seniors Week include a Seniors Luncheon for 250 people to be held at the Kempsey Macleay RSL Club on Wednesday 18th March 2009. The main hall at the Showground has been booked for Thursday 19th March and Friday 20th March. Activities planned for these two days include a Seniors Art Prize, Kempsey Cookhouse food tasting and information booth, display and exhibition by Kempsey Quilters, U3A information booth, tutor workshops, Tai Chi classes and Community Health participation.

A gopher safety driving and instruction course is being planned to be held in the showground ring.

When details are finalised on these activities it will be promoted and advertised in the local newspapers.

RECOMMENDATION IMPLICATIONS:

- Environmental

Nil

- Social

This year there will be a more diverse range of activities to promote active, healthy ageing for seniors in the community.

- Economic (Financial)

Kempsey Shire Council's allocation for Seniors Week is $6,000.

- Policy or Statutory

Nil

- Director's Review

It is important to provide a range of activities to our Seniors to actively promote active ageing and information on services available.

RECOMMENDATION:

That these activities be supported and promoted through Kempsey Shire Council.
