"Report It. Don’t Ignore It!" was developed to encourage people to report incidents of crime. Although NSW Police may not need to always attend minor incidents, by reporting all incidences, information can be gathered that will assist Police, in partnership with Council and local communities, to address concerns before they escalate.