NOTES

Searches can require considerable time in researching past records, generally 10 working days are required.

In cases where Council's records are incomplete it will be necessary for the applicant to submit further evidence, such as copies of Deposited Plans and/or ownership details identified by a historic land title search undertaken at the Land Registry Services Office. This search should establish the full name of the owners of the subject land, as at the relevant appointed date whichever is applicable. All costs associated with obtaining such evidence are the responsibility of the applicant.
